

How to Use

May Writing Prompts

1. Give each child a copy of the prompts.
2. Direct her to choose a prompt and write her response in her journal.
3. Then have the student lightly color the prompt's flower.
4. When she's not using the prompts, have the student store the page in her journal.

Bella
name

May

Writing Prompts

If you were in charge of making a salad for your family, what would you put in it? How would you prepare the salad? 	Tell what you know about the game of golf. 	May 5 is National Astronaut Day. Write a story about spending the day in space. 	Some people make a wish when they blow on a dandelion puff. If you had only one white and fluffy dandelion, what would you wish for? Why? 	Cinco de Mayo celebrates a battle the Mexican army won, even though the odds were stacked against it. Tell about a time you or someone you know won something, even though the odds were stacked against you or your pal.
Write a story that takes place in a field of flowers and starts with "Achoo!" 	What do you think is your teacher's idea of the perfect school day? Describe it from his or her point of view. 	Pretend you hear a bird singing a song you love. Tell the story of what you do next. 	What is your opinion of springtime flowers? Explain. 	Name a book that has a character who is a good mother. Tell why you chose this character.
There's a bug on your classroom floor. What do you do? Why? 	How can a person stay safe while riding a bike? 	Tell about a time when you or someone you know had spring fever. 	Write a make-believe story that takes place during a baseball game. It can happen on the field, in the dugout, or in the stands. 	National Learn to Swim Day is the third Saturday in May. Tell why it is important to learn to swim.
Tell what you know about Memorial Day. 	What is your opinion of chips and salsa? Is it something you love to eat, or something you would rather avoid eating? Tell why. 	Write a story with the title "The Class Picnic." 	Think about the things that happened at school this year. Write the true story of a day you will never forget. 	Describe two different ways you have changed this school year.

©The Mailbox™

_____ name

May Writing Prompts

If you were in charge of making a salad for your family, what would you put in it? How would you prepare the salad? 	Tell what you know about the game of golf. 	May 5 is National Astronaut Day. Write a story about spending the day in space. 	Some people make a wish when they blow on a dandelion puff. If you had only one white and fluffy dandelion, what would you wish for? Why? 	Cinco de Mayo celebrates a battle the Mexican army won, even though the odds were stacked against it. Tell about a time you or someone you know won something, even though the odds were stacked against you or your pal.
Write a story that takes place in a field of flowers and starts with "Achoo!" 	What do you think is your teacher's idea of the perfect school day? Describe it from his or her point of view. 	Pretend you hear a bird singing a song you love. Tell the story of what you do next. 	What is your opinion of springtime flowers? Explain. 	Name a book that has a character who is a good mother. Tell why you chose this character.
There's a bug on your classroom floor. What do you do? Why? 	How can a person stay safe while riding a bike? 	Tell about a time when you or someone you know had spring fever. 	Write a make-believe story that takes place during a baseball game. It can happen on the field, in the dugout, or in the stands. 	National Learn to Swim Day is the third Saturday in May. Tell why it is important to learn to swim.
Tell what you know about Memorial Day. 	What is your opinion of chips and salsa? Is it something you love to eat, or something you would rather avoid eating? Tell why. 	Write a story with the title "The Class Picnic." 	Think about the things that happened at school this year. Write the true story of a day you will never forget. 	Describe two different ways you have changed this school year. 